

Short's to Short's Paddle Release of Claims

Event Date: (Friday April 30th, 2010)

I WANT TO PARTICIPATE!

Even though the Short's to Short's Paddle may be dangerous and I could get hurt or killed, I want to do it anyway! I understand that the Short's to Short's Paddle is an extreme endurance event that involves a long-distance paddle through various waterways and wilderness areas where help or assistance may not be readily available. I realize that dangerous weather conditions may occur. I agree it is my sole responsibility to be prepared for any water, weather or health conditions (known or unknown) that may arise and to be familiar with the event and its course. I assume any and all risks of injury or death whether foreseen or not. I understand and agree that situations may arise during the event which may be beyond control of the event officials or organizers. Even knowing all of these things, I still want to do the Short's to Short's Paddle!
